

CONTRIBUTORS/COLLABORATEURS

Dieter Buse, a German social historian, teaches at Laurentian University in Sudbury.

Richard B. Day, an Erindale College political scientist, is the author of The "Crisis" and the "Crash" (London: New Left Books 1982).

Craig Heron teaches History at Toronto's York University and is a frequent contributor to L/IT.

Marcel Leduc is a graduate student at Université de Montréal and co-compiler of the Canadian Labour Bibliography.

Cyril Levitt of the Department of Sociology, McMaster University, is the author of a forthcoming volume on the comparative history of the student's movements of the 1960s and early 1970s.

Peter Linebaugh, formerly of the University of Rochester, coedited and contributed an essay to Albion's Fatal Tree and is active in the prisoners' rights movement.

Graham Lowe teaches sociology at the University of Alberta.

Laurel S. MacDowell of the Department of History, University of Toronto, is the author of Remember Kirkland Lake (Toronto: University of Toronto Press, forthcoming).

Danny Moore is the Labour Archivist at the PAC and Vice-President of the Committee on Canadian Labour History.

J. Petryshyn teaches at Grande Prairie Regional College.

Marcus Rediker teaches history at George Washington University.

Jim Tester was a leading labour militant in Sudbury Mine Mill until his retirement. He is now writing an oral history of the Sudbury labour movement.

Douglas Vaisey, Head of Information Services, Patrick Power Library, St. Mary's University, is the co-compiler of the Canadian Labour Bibliography.

The Great Canadian Magazine Deal

Information at your door - we'll deliver, you'll save! Yes, you can save a big 20% off the regular one year subscription price of these Canadian magazines. How? Simply fill in the order form below and mail it to us. We'll start your subscription right away.

LABOUR/LE TRAVAILLEUR

A journal of Canadian labour studies and working class history with letters, reviews, documents, art, book notes, and an annual bibliography. Of interest to trade unions as well as students and teachers. $15. 2 issues.

OWG MAGAZINE

In its twelfth year of publication (OWG) Magazine is considered by critics to be one of the world's best photo magazines. The main focus on process, immigration, the auto mobile, children and other subjects. $12. 4 issues.

THE BODY POLITIC

Canada's gay news magazine. It examines the impact of the culture and struggles of gay people through features, news and reviews on gay life from coast to coast. $12.50. 10 issues.

BOOKS IN CANADA

An entertaining national book review magazine covering the world of books and related cultural fields. Contains top flight criticism, profiles, reviews, interviews, regular columns and monthly reports. $11.95. 10 issues.

CANADIAN WOMAN STUDIES

A bilingual journal quarterly with articles, reviews, poetry and photography. Features articles on race, women and the economy, adolescence, multi-culturalism, religion and sport. $15. 4 issues.

ANTIQUES & ART MAGAZINE

An in-depth look at the antiques and fine art marketplace in Canada and around the world with auction reports, market analysis and informative feature articles. $19.95. 10 issues.

PROBE POST

Dedicated to pollution and energy issues, this informative news magazine presents the province and perspective articles on many contemporary environmental issues. $20. 6 issues.

POETRY CANADA REVIEW

A journal devoted to promoting new and established poets. Each issue features, not just with reviews of books and readings, regional reports and market reports. $6. 4 issues.

SAVE 20% NOW!

NOW you'll save 20% on the regular one year subscription price of these Canadian magazines. So fill this in and we'll keep you filled in!

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

CITY _____ PROVINCE _____

ZIP _____

MAGAZINE _____

AMOUNT _____

NO. OF ISSUES _____

TOTAL _____

SEND TO _____

DATE _____

Send cheque payable to:
Canadian Periodical Publishers Association
54 Wellesley Street, Toronto, Ontario M5T 1A5.